The Potomac-Chesapeake Cruise to Baltimore

If you know this trip, you are for it; if you do not, by all means get acquainted. Mix a little joy with life. Chesapeake days—and nights—are joyful occasions all the summer long. The national steamers "Three Rivers" and "Dorchester" sail Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, 3:00 P. M. from Washington, 5:00 P. M. from Baltimore. Two nights and a day each way. Comfortable, excellent meals, comparatively inexpensive. For reservations out of Washington call J. H. Stephens, Agent, Seventh St. Wharf, Main 745. For information about other celebrated inland cruises out of Baltimore write or call H. H. Southby, G. P. A. B&O & M&D Rwy. Co., Baltimore, Md., St. Paul 340.

GREEK PLAY TO BE PRESENTED IN AID OF D.C. FOUNDLINGS

Students of Miss Patterson's School Will Appear in Pageant Tomorrow Night.

"Flora's Awakening," a Greek myth, will be presented in pageantry form at the Dean estate, Connecticut and Florida avenues northwest, tomorrow night for the benefit of the Washington Home for Foundlings. The pageant is given by Mrs. Charlotte Patterson's School of Rhythmic Culture. Greek and Oriental dances will feature the pageant, which will be presented around the historic fountain on the estate. Students of the school are rehearsing every day in preparation for the affair to make it one of the most elaborate rhythmic demonstrations ever presented in Washington.

Lights of every color will furnish the illumination, and several thousand people are expected. Boxes and tickets are on sale in the Willard Hotel northeast. All society is expected, and boxes have already been taken by Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, Mrs. Behrend, Mrs. John B. Larner and Mrs. John Larcombe. This school of culture is known throughout Washington. Girls of the school took a prominent part in Community Service's "Midsummer Night's Dream," presented last Friday night on the Dean estate.

Among those taking part in this pageant are Alva Robinson, Anita Hawkins, Emily Morse, Eugenia Taylor, Marjorie Morse, Elizabeth Morse, Chorrrellis Water, Arica Covey, Thelma Hayes, Janairo Brooks, Marion Newman, Loretta Hannan, Francis Frost, Elizabeth Anne Kaufman, Virginia Lawton, Elizabeth Martin, Maxine Schwartz, Mildred Lee, Sybil Davis, Grace Nelson, Grace Sawwell, Marie Fluke, Esther Bondheim, Elizabeth Young, Marie Louise Lemon, Ruth Pack, Miriam Mohler, Elizabeth Lamb, Ferol Taylor, Betty Baum, Leah Gugenheim, Ruby Gulman, Louise Goldenberg, Dorothy White, Aline Weiss, Vera Reiskin, Anita Brown, Amy Behrend, Lucille Nachare, Marjorie Hertzberg, Evelyn Schloss, Victoria Peyser, Emma Abel, and Ruth Schultz.

'POOR' INVENTOR FORGOT $25,000 ON DEPOSIT
 NEW YORK, June 3.—William Gierth, an aged inventor of 47 Bank Street, Newark, who lived for nine years in poverty in a small furnished room while $25,000 credited to his account in the Fidelity Trust Company of Newark lay dormant, is anxiously awaiting the decision of Vice Chancellor Foster as to the outcome of his newly discovered fortune.

Gierth suffered loss of memory several years ago after recovering from sickness and lost all track of the account. His attention was called to the $25,000 by a clerk in the bank. Gierth's application is being opposed by the bank, and Inglis Upperco, president of the Newark sales branch of the Cadillac Company, Conover English, counsel for Upperco, contended that the deposit standing in Gierth's name was made up for the most part of the proceeds of a check of $2,500 given by Upperco to Gierth in a business transaction in 1912, and that in some manner the check was raised to $25,000.

BLAST VICTIMS SENT TO HOMES FOR BURIAL
 ABERDEEN, Md., June 3.—The bodies of the five men killed in the explosion of the fifty-pound bomb filled with TNT at the Aberdeen proving grounds Tuesday morning were sent to their homes for burial yesterday. A military escort accompanied them to the train.

The board of inquiry, headed by Major James Kirk, completed its work today. It was announced, and will hand a written report to Lieutenant Colonel Schull, commanding officer.

16 Eggs In Storage For Everyone In U. S.

CHICAGO, June 3.—There are sixteen eggs in storage waiting for you to eat them. That is the declaration of Russell J. Poole, secretary of the council committee on high costs. He advises eating eggs to beat the high cost of living and says there are 1,740,480,000 in storage, or sixteen for everybody in the country.

MRS. BERGDOLL BOWS TO DEMANDS OF U. S.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll has decided to throw open all the accounts of her properties and those of her daughter, Grover C. Bergdoll, if the Government, through Col. Thomas Miller, alien property custodian, will appoint a certified accountant. If Mrs. Bergdoll had not decided upon that course, she would have been liable to imprisonment under the trading with the enemy act.

Extraordinary Purchase Extraordinary Sale of Silk Crepe Blouses
$5.95
 This Price Is Actually Below the Actual Cost to Manufacture Newest of summer models! Variety to please every taste! Colors to correspond contrast with every suit or skirt! The two favored Silk Crepes of the season—Georgette
 and Crepe de Chine!
 Now that you know what to expect, we'll tell you what WE EXPECT: We expect such a rousing response that the entire lot—and it is a big one—will be exhausted after the first day's selling, for what we went through to procure these Blouses for you, well, the manufacturer feels as if he had been held up—
 however, he knows that obliging us means
 many orders to follow.
 Every color Fashion has included in her
 discriminating list: Flesh, white, bisque,
 honeydew, copen, turquoise, jade, copper,
 navy, tan and ivory.
 Tie-on, tuck-in, regulation models in every possible variation of each. Hemstitching, filet lace, vestees, tucks, braiding, embroidery, ribbon, buttons, motifs, beads, bugles, insertion, cording, and we noticed several during the process of unpacking, that had an all-over embroidery of "silver threads among the gold"—metal intricately interstitched in many a beautiful design.
 We've done our part, now it's up to you—
 are you going to take advantage of this very unusual sale, or are you going to take a chance—and lose?

Another New and Handsome
Silk Hand Bag
at $2.95
 This is a beauty! The frame is in filigree design, slightly slanted outward to effect a bulge to the bag when closed. Plenty of fullness in the Silk Moire of which it is made.
 Inner change compartment with strong clasp.
 Others fitted with purse and mirror. Beautifully lined with moire or Dresden silk.

2,400 Pairs of Women's Summer
SILK HOSIERY . . $1.50
 "Time, tide and newspapers wait for no man," so we have not time to tell you the story of how we acquired these SILK STOCKINGS, just when there is rumor that it is only a question of a short time when they will be unavailable at any price. The big feature is that WE HAVE THEM!
 Read with interest that they are super-fashions legs, seamless feet, strong garter hems. Perfect goods. Plain black, fashionable shades of tan and grey; also mottled effects and novelty drop-stitch styles in such an extensive assortment that you will probably choose several pairs. All sizes and by all odds, the most striking hosiery value Washington has known since the almost forgotten days before the war.
